

2024 BIPOC Doula Scholarship Fund

The Little Timmy Project created the BIPOC Doula Scholarship Fund to provide aspiring and current birth workers access to funding as they seek further training that will help reduce these alarming disparities in the BIPOC community.

Scholarships must be used for a doula program approved by TLTP. The three programs applicants will be able to choose from are Doula Trainings International (DTI), SMC Full Circle Doula Training (Shafia Monroe) or Birthing Advocacy Doula Trainings (BADT).

A committee will review applicants.

WHO CAN APPLY?

- Aspiring doulas who identify as Black, Indigenous and People of Color (BIPOC)
- Applicant must live in Indiana

HOW TO APPLY?

- Fill out applications on our website.
- Scholarship must be used within six months of awardment

First application round opens March 1st - May 31st 2024
Grantees will be announced July 1st 2024

Second application round opens September 1st - October 31st 2024
Grantees will be announced December 1st 2024

HOW CAN THE FUNDS BE USED?

- Funding will be paid directly to the doula agency that the applicant has chosen to train with.

FUNDS DISTRIBUTED

- Trainings will be covered based on which program the awardee has chosen.

DONATE TO FUND

- Specific grants and individual donations will be used to fund this scholarship.

WHO TO CONTACT?

Please email info@littletimmy.org for any additional questions.

<https://shafiamonroe.com/doula-training-education/>

<https://doulatraininginternational.com/>

<https://www.badoulatraining.org/>